LETTER FROM THE 2023 SYMPOSIUM CO-CHAIRS

Dear Hadassah Family, Friends and Associates

We are very excited you are registering for Hadassah's July 2023 National Business Meeting & Symposium — our first in-person meeting since 2019 — in Chicago.

For over 100 years, Hadassah has inspired a Passion for the land, the people and the future of Israel. Hadassah is Proud of its work in Israel supporting the Hadassah Medical Organization and Youth Aliyah, as well as Hadassah's US programs focusing on advocacy, Jewish education, health and wellness and Young Judaea. Hadassah's Purpose is to strengthen a connection to Israel and empower and inspire Jewish women and men around the world.

It is our goal during the Symposium to showcase The Heart of Hadassah - *Pride, Passion and Purpose.

The Symposium will give you the opportunity to learn more about:

- Hadassah Medical Organization's new cutting-edge medical research and sophisticated treatments
- What Israel means to the next generation during challenging times
- How powerful women have paved the way in their diverse work
- Connecting the youth in the United States to Israel
- Tools to build a brighter future for at-risk youth in Israel
- Anti-Zionism and antisemitism in the media
- Strengthening our leadership skills
- The fountain of youth
- Fundraising and membership skills
- Advocating for issues important to women and families in the United States
- What our current leader will be doing in 2024

While we are learning, we will dance to live music, enjoy Chicago's favorite food, celebrate past accomplishments and future plans, meditate and meet old friends and make new ones.

If you are new to Hadassah, we hope this experience is just the beginning of a wonderful Hadassah journey.

Come to Chicago early or stay longer to explore the city's bold architecture, visit renowned art museums, catch a White Sox game at Guaranteed Rate Field, take a boat tour and enjoy one of the city's world-class restaurants.

We look forward to celebrating The Heart of Hadassah - *Pride Passion and Purpose with YOU!

Pride, Passion and Purpose Programming Workshops

There are six workshop options (listed below) available for all Symposium participants, of which everyone will have the opportunity to attend two. You will submit your workshop preferences as part of your online registration. All sessions will be assigned prior to the meetings.

1. Celebrating Our Youth: Together We Are Building the Jewish Future

Engage in a unique opportunity to learn about Hadassah's youth in Israel and in the United States. Meet amazing students in Youth Aliyah and Young Judea and become inspired by how their lives have been changed because of their transformative experiences. Join us for this interactive and enlightening session. It will truly warm your heart!

2. History With Chutzpah: Live With Renee Rosen, Bestselling Author of Fifth Avenue Glamour Girl

Watch a special slide show presentation based on Renee's work as a historical fiction author and her long journey to publication. Renee's work often includes such Jewish icons as Phil and Leonard Chess of Chess Records, and most recently, Estée Lauder in Renee's newest novel, Fifth Avenue Glamour Girl. Renee will discuss the book she's currently writing about another Jewish woman with chutzpah, Ruth Handler, who created the Barbie doll. This promises to be as entertaining as it is inspirational.

3. Israel and The Media

Get the latest information on how the media is reporting on current events in Israel with Deputy Consul General Daniel Aschheim. What is the current relationship between Israel and the media and how may this relationship change in the future?

4. Israel Innovation

Hear from Maayan Hoffman, The Jerusalem Post's Deputy CEO-Strategy & Innovation and host of Hadassah On Call podcast, as she speaks about the latest in innovation from the start-up nation.

5. Fountain of Youth – Nutrition and Wellness

Everyone wants to live a long time if they have their health. What people eat over a lifetime has a direct impact on achieving this goal. At this talk, Dr. Stacey Bell will present to us the latest and best science about foods that will help us live longer and healthier. Eating foods that are nutrient-rich — that is each bite contains a variety of nutrients in large amounts — is the best approach. Nutrients like vitamins and minerals are required by every cell in the body. Aging occurs faster if these nutrients are lacking in the diet. Nutrient-rich foods include fruits, vegetables, whole grains, dairy products and proteins from plants, poultry and seafood. These foods are also anti-inflammatory, which is good because inflammation is a major cause of many chronic diseases associated with aging, such as heart disease, diabetes and arthritis. New research is emerging showing that including these foods in your diet can also help prevent dementia.

6. Leadership and the Power of Invitation

Who invited you to be involved? Who are you inviting? This interactive workshop with Dr. Erica Brown, Vice Provost for Values and Leadership at Yeshiva University will focus on identifying, mentoring, growing, and sustaining Hadassah leaders for a lifetime of service through a variety of leadership literature and Jewish resources.

3 - 4 pm Panel: Evolving Zionism: A Contemporary View From A Young Woman's Perspective

Creating a bold and respectful space to discuss what Israel means in the lives of the next generation at a time of challenging conversation around Zionism. We are honored to have Samantha von Ende, managing director, State-Building and Statecraft Initiative, and previous director, academic affairs to the Consulate General of Israel in the Southeast (invited), Emily Briskman, director, JUF's Israel Education Center, and Destiny Albritton, National Outreach Director at the Israel Campus Coalition.
